II. Purchase Price Discount

The discount on the purchase price calculated at the current daily rate, as stated in Section I, is a price reduction under sales law. It accrues monthly in arrears for each fully elapsed month of the agreed delivery period and is granted definitively and irrevocably in the amount specified. The accrued amounts are recorded in the customer's back office.

The discount is not interest on the purchase price, nor is it compensation for the temporary provision of cash or precious metals, nor is it an ongoing profit share. The amounts shown do not accrue interest and do not increase beyond the amount shown for the respective month merely by the passage of time. The discount does not give rise to an independent claim for payment separable from the purchase of goods; it is neither assignable nor pledgeable nor otherwise realizable.

The customer may request a refund of amounts already paid. The refund will be made exclusively as a partial refund of the purchase price paid to an account in the customer's name and is contingent upon the complete submission of the information and supporting documentation required under Section 12 of the General Terms and Conditions. TRUST GOLD will issue a corrected invoice for each refund.

TRUST GOLD may not reclaim the discount. The discount will not be increased through the recruitment of additional customers, the provision of recommendations, or any other circumstances unrelated to the goods.

III. Transfer of Ownership

Ownership of the fine gold bars specified in Section I passes to the customer upon physical delivery to the customer. Until that time, TRUST GOLD remains the owner. The purchase price paid establishes a contractual claim by the customer for the transfer of ownership and delivery of the fine gold bars until physical delivery takes place.

IV. Delivery

Delivery will take place after the expiration of the delivery period selected in Section I to the delivery address provided by the customer in the ordering system. Any different delivery address must be communicated in writing no later than four weeks before the delivery date. The customer may request early delivery in writing at any time. TRUST GOLD will decide on such requests at its commercial discretion; in the event of early delivery, no purchase price discounts will be granted for the months that have not yet elapsed.

The customer's claim is directed at the delivery of physical goods at all times. Cash settlement in lieu of delivery is not provided for; the customer has no right to choose between delivery and cash payment. The agreed delivery time is a term governing the delivery of goods and does not constitute an investment, custody, or capital transfer period.

Shipping is at the customer's expense and risk. The risk of transport passes to the customer upon handover of the fine gold bars to the contracted shipping company. The customer has the option to purchase shipping insurance. Shipping and insurance costs are due no later than four weeks before the delivery date. Customs duties and import taxes in the destination country are borne by the customer.

V. Payment and Due Date

The purchase price is due upon acceptance of the order by TRUST GOLD and must be paid in full; installment or partial payments are not permitted. Payment is made via the payment methods approved in the ordering system. Payment is considered made when the full amount has been credited to the account specified by TRUST GOLD and TRUST GOLD has access to those funds. Payments from third-party accounts will not be accepted; payments from TRUST GOLD to the customer will be made exclusively to an account in the customer's name.

VI. No Right of Return or Repurchase; Purchase of Fine Gold by TRUST GOLD

The customer has no right to demand the rescission of this contract, the return of the fine gold bars, or the refund of the purchase price. A buyback is not the subject of this purchase contract; TRUST GOLD is under no obligation to accept the return of the fine gold bars, to refund the purchase price, or to provide any other additional performance.

TRUST GOLD purchases fine gold as part of its general trading activities. This purchase transaction is open to any seller under the same terms and conditions and is legally and economically independent of this purchase agreement. Following physical delivery, the customer may submit an offer to TRUST GOLD to sell fine gold; TRUST GOLD is under no obligation to accept such an offer. The purchase price is based on the purchase rate in effect at the time of acceptance, less the standard market dealer discount and any applicable processing and logistics costs; it may be lower than the original purchase price. No minimum price guarantee or loss protection is provided. The specific terms and conditions are governed by Section 11 of the General Terms and Conditions.

VII. Customer Declarations

The customer declares that his or her habitual residence or registered office is not located in the United States of America, Canada, or a sanctioned country, and that he or she is not entering into this contract on behalf of a person resident in any of these jurisdictions. The customer agrees to immediately notify TRUST GOLD of any relocation of their habitual residence or registered office to one of these countries during the term of the contract.

The customer further declares that the funds used for payment originate from a lawful source, that he is the beneficial owner, and that he will promptly provide the information and evidence requested pursuant to Section 12 of the General Terms and Conditions upon request.

VIII. Risk Disclosures

The subject matter of this contract is the purchase of physical goods. TRUST GOLD does not offer any financial instruments or investment products and does not provide any financial services. The price of gold is subject to market fluctuations, which may result in both increases and decreases in value; a financial loss, including the total loss of the amount invested, cannot be ruled out.

During the agreed delivery period, the customer bears the risk of TRUST GOLD's insolvency. The customer's claim to transfer of ownership and delivery is a contractual claim until physical delivery takes place and is not separately secured. The purchase price discount granted does not constitute protection against a decline in the price of gold and is not to be understood as a guarantee of value preservation or purchase price protection. TRUST GOLD grants neither a performance guarantee nor a capital preservation guarantee. The customer is solely responsible for the tax treatment of the transaction.

IX. Applicability of the General Terms and Conditions

The General Terms and Conditions of TRUST GOLD International Limited for the sale of physical fine gold bars (Model: Fine Gold Bars with Extended Delivery Time; as of 3 August 2026) are an integral part of this purchase agreement. By signing, the customer confirms that they have fully read and accepted the General Terms and Conditions.

X. Governing Law, Jurisdiction, and Language

This contract is governed by the laws of the Republic of Mauritius. Mandatory provisions of the country in which the customer has his or her habitual residence remain unaffected. The place of jurisdiction for all disputes arising out of or in connection with this contract is Port Louis, Republic of Mauritius; where consumers are involved, a court in the district where the customer has his or her habitual residence shall also have jurisdiction. The applicability of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods is excluded to the extent permitted by law.

This contract is provided in German and English. In the event of discrepancies between the language versions or in the event of questions of interpretation, the German version shall be exclusively authoritative.
